Since your recent interview with Mr. Houston, your file has been brought to the attention of appropriate officials and we regret to advise you that we have not located an opening which would accommodate your employment with us. Your substantial experience has been noted with interest and, while we have nothing definite in mind for you at this time, we shall advise you should a requirement develop within a grade range to interest you.

STAT

In addition to the warm recommendation which [redacted] sent to Mr. Houston, Mr. Dulles has received a favorable letter about you from [redacted]. Your distinguished record speaks for itself but it must be indeed gratifying to have earned the support of such outstanding men.

Your interest in our organization and your offer to be of service were appreciated.

Sincerely,

/s/ Emmett D. Echols
